

Commonwealth Workforce Coalition

A Network of Massachusetts Community-Based Workforce Development Practitioners

A NETWORKING EVENT

Boston Network is Growing!

The Commonwealth Workforce Coalition: is a statewide capacity building initiative providing training, professional development and network opportunities for staff of organizations engaged in workforce development -- education, training and employment for adults and youth.

Commonwealth Workforce Coalition (CWC) is pleased to invite you to attend this networking meeting. Hone your networking skills! Now more than ever, meeting your colleagues and keeping up-to-date with happenings in the field of workforce development is critical to your work.

Tuesday January 26th - 10:00 AM - 12:00 Noon

LOCATION: Boston Public Library
Dartmouth Street Entrance
Orientation Room, McKim Building

This Commonwealth Workforce Coalition network session is open to all workforce development professionals, and:

- is especially relevant for direct service and supervisory staff;
- provides a forum to share experiences, discuss on-the-job challenges;
- learn from peers, build contacts;
- find support for your work, and;
- will focus on networking.

We meet every other month for two hours. Coffee and pastry are provided.

As always, networking includes small group discussion, announcements on workforce development happenings and events and time to meet your colleagues. Please join us!

Bring your business cards and your program information to share with others.

Please register by Tuesday January 19th (see back for details)

The Boston Network meeting has been convening workforce development professionals bi-monthly since 2001.
