- ◆ Need to design a health education workshop but feel overwhelmed by the task?
- ◆ Know what health subject you want to teach but not sure how to set your goals?
- ◆ Want to change learners' health behaviors but not sure how to accomplish your goals?

This training is designed to prepare Outreach Educators to outline and develop a workshop that engages their participants in a problem-oriented learning experience. You will leave this training with a blue print on how to develop and write a health education session with clearly defined goals and objectives and activities that will accomplish these goals. This will include a list of specific tasks and a wealth of ideas for creating an experience that is interesting, engaging, and fun!

**This is an all day session.****

Trainings are free of charge, but you will be held to CHEC's policies. Deadline for registering is March 16th, 2012.
